

Simultaneous Fork Positioner

Simultaneous Fork Positioner - Load Protectors for lift trucks can help eliminate expensive scratching, chipping, scuffing and marring by means of providing a cushioned non-slip surface between the blades and goods. These kinds of attachments can be moulded according to OEM conditions from premium polyurethane. It is very fast to mount the Load Protectors because they fit right on top of the standard forklift blades making use of mounting hardware.